
Delivered Transactions in RGPL Network

Dear Members,

In accordance with IGX's Byelaws and Market Rules, Members are informed that under Clause 10.1.3 of Market Rules following is mentioned:

“a. Delivered Transaction: The Exchange shall facilitate the trade, physical delivery of Gas by booking the necessary transmission capacity on behalf of the Buyer, and financial settlement for the traded Contracts. The Buyer shall be required to submit necessary documents for execution of GTA as prescribed by the Exchange from time to time to facilitate such transactions; and...”

Accordingly, Members are hereby informed that buyers intending to trade under Delivered Transactions on the Reliance Gas Pipelines Limited (RGPL) gas pipeline network, are now eligible to initiate such Delivered Transactions on the Gas Exchange. To enable gas transportation for such buyers, IGX has entered into a Framework Gas Transmission Agreement (FGTA) with the Transporter.

Buyers who wish to undertake Delivered Transactions in the RGPL network, will be required to submit a duly signed Gas Transportation Undertaking (“GTU”), executed by an authorized signatory. Through GTU, the buyer agrees to assume all obligations and liabilities arising from IGX's execution of the FGTA. Copies of the RGPL FGTA and GTU are available at <https://igxindia.com/documents/delivery-related>.

Members are requested to kindly make a note of above and act accordingly.
