Mock Trading Session - Ceiling Price Domestic (HPHT) Gas Contracts (Revised Allocation Methodology)

Dear Members,

In pursuance to Bye-Laws and Market Rules of the Exchange, and further to Circular No. IGX/MO/303/2026 dated 18.09.2026 regarding the revised methodology for determination of CGD bidder requirement for Ceiling Price Domestic (HPHT) Gas Contracts ('Allocation Circular'), the Exchange will be conducting a Mock Trading Session on the Trader Workstation (TWS) to familiarize Members with the changes incorporated pursuant thereto. Accordingly, Members are hereby notified as under –

1. Mock Trading Session: IGX will be conducting a Mock trading session on 21.09.2026 from 16:00 hrs. to 16:30 hrs. with market extension till 17:00 hrs.
2. Changes to be familiarized in the Mock Session: Pursuant to the Allocation Circular, the following changes have been incorporated in TWS and will be available for testing in the mock session:
 - a) Net Requirement-based Allocation: The Provisional Allocation tab for Ceiling Price contracts will reflect allocations for CNG (T)/PNG (D) Bidders computed on a Net Requirement basis, as per the terms of the Allocation Circular.
 - b) Entity-to-Client Code Apportionment: Where a Bidder Entity maps to multiple Client Codes (in terms of Point 3 of the Allocation Circular), the Provisional Allocation tab will display the apportionment of the Entity-level allocation amongst its respective Client Codes.
 - c) Revised Lot Size and Tick Size: For all HPHT gas trades, the Lot Size has been revised to 1 (one) MMBtu, with a Tick Size of 1 MMBtu, in terms of Para 4 of the Allocation Circular. Members are requested to note this change while placing orders through the Order Form during the mock session.
