Dear Members,

In pursuance to the Bye laws and Market Rules of IGX and in reference to IGX Circular No. IGX/MO/60 dated 12.05.2022 on commencement of Domestic Gas (ceiling price) trading, Members of the Exchange are hereby notified as under:

Currently in case of domestic gas (ceiling price) contracts, the exchange transaction fee is applicable on both buyers and sellers of the trade. It is now decided to exempt the transaction fees on sellers of domestic gas (ceiling price) contracts and the same will be paid by buyers besides normal buyer-side transaction fees. Accordingly, buyers will henceforth be required to pay total transaction fees applicable i.e., INR 8/MMBTU in Ex-Hub transaction(s) and INR 10/MMBTU in Delivered transaction(s) for the trades in the domestic gas (ceiling price) contracts.

For all other natural gas segments, there will be no change in the existing exchange transaction fees of INR 4/MMBTU for sellers and INR 4/MMBTU (Ex-Hub transactions) and INR 6/MMBTU (Delivered transactions) for buyers. Further, Members may also note that all provisions mentioned under circular no. 60 will remain the same.

This Circular will come into effect from trading date 26th July 2022.

Members are requested to kindly make note of all above changes and act accordingly.
